

LTI Lent Term workshops

Scheduled

INTRODUCTION TO BLOGGING

17/10/16

- * Introduction to blogging
- * Creating your own blog
- * good practice tips for managing and promoting your blog

TAKING STUDENTS BEYOND THE READING LIST: RESEARCH IN THE AGE OF WIKIPEDIA

20/10/16

Discover and/or explore the concepts of digital and information literacy and how they can be embedded in your teaching

DEVELOPING YOUR WEB PRESENCE

26/10/16

How to shape your web profile and promote your research via different online arenas

EFFECTIVE PRESENTATIONS: HOW NOT TO USE POWERPOINT

28/10/16

- * Characteristics of an effective presentation
- * Designing to communicate ideas
- * Choosing and using software

COPYRIGHT COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE

04/11/16 30/11/2016

Regular informal meetings to discuss and share experience and expertise around copyright.

WRITING FOR BLOGS

09/11/16

Guidelines on good practice when writing web content with a specific focus on blogs

COPYRIGHT: LICENCES & THE NEW EXCEPTIONS

14/11/16

An interactive session based on a new copyright card game that is a fun way of providing you with an overview of UK copyright law

SOCIAL MEDIA FOR RESEARCH

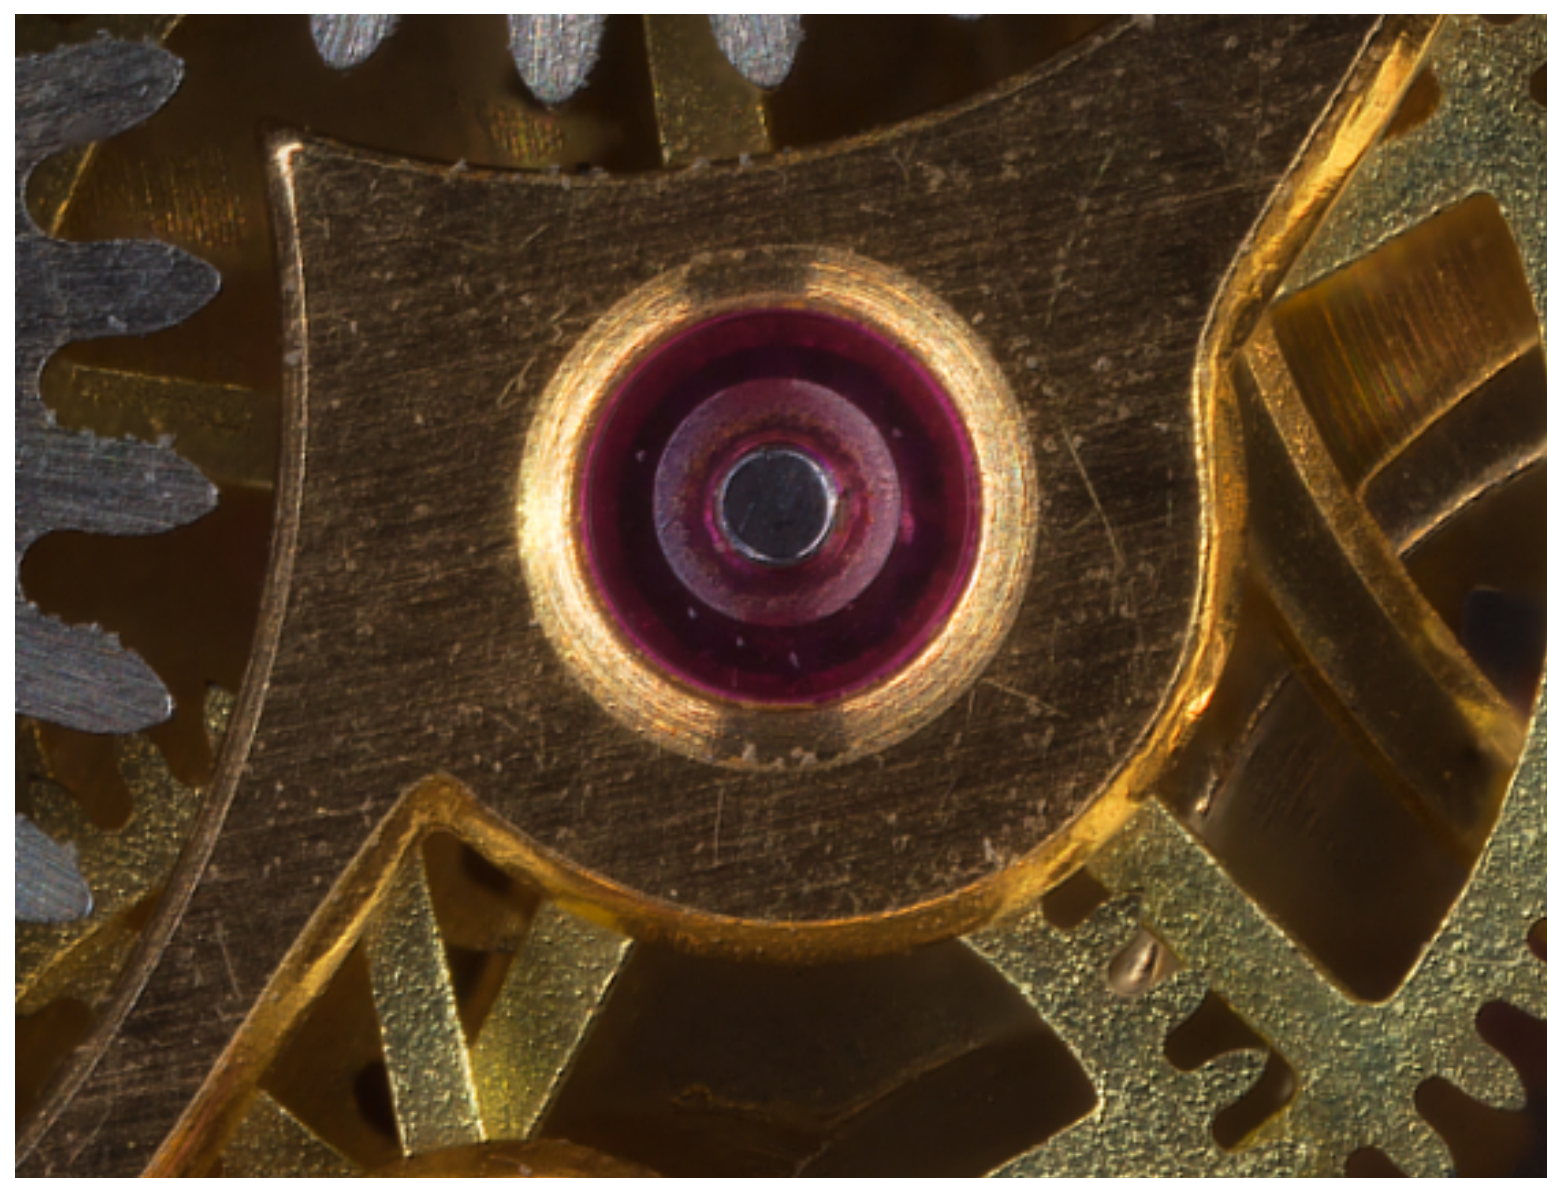

22/11/16

For staff and PhD students interested in using social media in the research cycle

USING SOCIAL MEDIA FOR TEACHING

01/12/16

Introduction to social media tools with a focus on their possible applications for teaching and learning

Moodle

MOODLE BASICS

18/10/16 16/11/16

An introduction to basic skills required to update/edit a course in Moodle

MOODLE SURGERIES

several dates

Half-hour lunchtime slots for staff with specific administrative or teaching queries

Cannot make these dates? Need a quick answer? Then have a look at our Moodle portal in our website

Web: lti.lse.ac.uk

Book your place: LSE Training System